

CONCUSSION IN SPORT

A Workshop for Medical Practitioners and Professionals

FREE

*Presented by leading concussion researcher,
Dr Andrew Gardner
(University of Newcastle)*

Protect What Matters!

This free workshop provides medical practitioners and professionals involved in sport with an in depth, detailed analysis of current concussion assessment tools and an open forum for questions with respected researcher, Dr Andrew Gardner.

For more information and to register visit www.sma.org.au

CONCUSSION IN SPORT

Protect What Matters

Concussion is a significant and complex health issue within the Australian sporting landscape at all levels of play.

Sports Medicine Australia and the NSW Office of Sport have partnered to deliver a series of education workshops aiming to provide those in attendance with a greater knowledge of concussion, its prevalence, signs and symptoms, recognition and management, return to play, long term issues and importantly analysis of current assessment tools.

Newcastle

Thursday 1st March
7.00pm - 9.30pm
John Hunter Hospital
Cost: FREE // Register →

Cronulla

Wednesday 21st March
7.00pm - 9.30pm
Cronulla Leagues Club
Cost: FREE // Register →

Wollongong

Thursday 12th April
7.00pm - 9.30pm
Wests Illawarra
Cost: FREE // Register →

Castle Hill

Thursday 15th March
7.00pm - 9.30pm
Castle Hill RSL
Cost: FREE // Register →

Belrose

Thursday 22nd March
7.00pm - 9.30pm
Club Belrose
Cost: FREE // Register →

Port Macquarie

Thursday 3rd May
7.00pm - 9.30pm
Port Macquarie Panthers
Cost: FREE // Register →

Further information:

Email nsw.admin@sma.org.au | Phone 02 9096 8981

